

Wales Health Student Forum's Inaugural Conference 'Diversity'

Friday 18th October 2013, 09:30-16:15
All Nations Centre, Cardiff

PROGRAMME

09:30 Registration & Coffee

10:05 Chairman's Welcome

Stephen Griffiths, Director of Workforce, Education & Development Services

10:10 Welcome & Introductions

Neil Frow, Director of NHS Wales Shared Service Partnership

10:15 Opening Address

Prof. Mark Drakeford, Minister for Health & Social Services

10:25 Silenced Voices: Why Some People Matter and Some Do Not

Dr. Peter Cox, University of Chester

10:55 "Witness" to Violence? Psychological Discourses of Children in Situations of Domestic Abuse

Prof. Judith Sixsmith & Dr. Jane Callaghan, University of Northampton

11:25 Coffee Break & Networking

11:55 Prescribing Heroin for Addiction: Some Potentials and Pitfalls

Stephen Wakeman, Manchester University

12:25 New Speakers Platform:

- Steve Catherall – Occupational Therapy Student, Glyndwr University
- Nicola Kelley – Medical Illustration Student, Cardiff University
- Claire Harries – Learning Disabilities Nursing Student, University of South Wales
- Ela Cernyw – Clinical Psychology Student, Bangor University

13:10 Lunch

13:55 Workshops

1. Human Rights in Healthcare
2. Listen, Believe, Do
3. Complementary Therapies in Cancer Care
4. RICE is nice -Reablement, Intermediate Care and Enablement, who benefits?
5. Should Everyone's Genome be Sequenced?
6. Delivering Person Centred Care to Trans* People

15:25 Coffee Break & Networking

15:45 Chairman's Close

Stephen Griffiths, Director of Workforce, Education & Development Services

16:00 Close of the Wales Health Student Forum's Inaugural Conference

Simon Carley-Smith, Chair of the Wales Health Student Forum